

Kent & Sussex Shooting School

www.ksshooting.co.uk

Section 21

Section 21 Statement

Kent & Sussex Shooting School is open to members of the public who are not in possession of a valid shotgun certificate under Section 11(6) exceptions of the Firearms Act 1968 which states:

'A person may, without holding a shotgun certificate, use a shotgun at a place and time approved for the shooting of artificial targets by the Chief Officer of Police for the area in which that place is situated'.

The Section 11(6) applied only to shotguns falling under Section 2 of the Firearms Act 1968 (as amended).

Prohibited persons as defined by Section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 (if known) must not be permitted to be in possession of any type of firearm or ammunition.

Kent & Sussex Shooting School have been issued with a section 11(6) certificate by the Kent, Surrey & Sussex Police Firearms Licensing Units.

To comply with the conditions of section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 all persons wishing to shoot at Kent & Sussex Shooting School will be required to sign a disclaimer.

Not-with-standing the regulations described above, Kent & Sussex Shooting School reserve the right to refuse any person entry or use of the shooting ground at any time for any reason, if behaviour, attitude, or actions are considered by our staff to pose a risk to life limb or property. Depending on the nature of the offence we may decline to refund any monies paid for services rendered or part rendered.